AGS Guinea Ecuatorial : Mudanzas y almacenamiento en Guinea Ecuatorial

AGS Frasers Equatorial Guinea was established in 1996 and has over 18 years of experience in the removals industry. It is fully owned by the AGS Group. Being part a large removals company, allows our branch in Malabo to not only benefit from the AGS Group's extensive network of 129 locations in 82 countries, but also its experience and processes. These include very high quality standards of service and the most prestigious accreditations.

For all these reasons we are considered as one of the best removals companies in Equatorial Guinea.

International Removals

AGS Frasers in Malabo specialises in both domestic and international removals to and from Equatorial

Guinea

Our staff are able to assist you in French, English and Spanish. With our own trucks and seven permanent employees at your disposal at all times, our removal company in Malabo has all the necessary resources to ensure a smooth and peaceful move to its clients.

Packing

AGS Frasers Equatorial Guinea also benefits from the unique and advanced packing materials of the AGS Group. Because of the size of the AGS Group and the number of removals operations carried out every year, our removals branch in Malabo is able to provide its clients with various cartons, which are tailored to the type of goods being transported. This not only increases the safety of the goods, but allows for improved space allocation, further reducing the cost of the removal.

Short- and Long-term Storage

If you are moving from Equatorial Guinea, or have recently arrived back home and require storage for your goods, our 400 m² warehouse, located in Malabo, is available for all your goods, on both a short- and long-term storage basis. Your goods are completely safe with modern security systems.
