An international and independent group with over 600 employees, Ascoma is the leading insurance broker in Monaco and the first network to be established in French-speaking Africa, due to the presence of its subsidiaries, some of which have been firmly established for over sixty years.

The detailed knowledge of local characteristics and socio-economic structures in each of the countries where it is present along with the experience and technical expertise of its employees and the solid relationships developed with the largest companies are just some of the assets which enable Ascoma to offer its clients tailored advice and contracts, suited to their local and international needs, whether in terms of companies, individuals, or public or para-governmental bodies.
