Clarence Abogados & Asociados offers its clients the freedom to operate in Africa. Thanks to our diverse resources, we understand Africa better than most firms. At Clarence we believe in working very closely with our clients and aim to be an integral part of their management structure. Our approach is to bridge the gap between external and in-house counsels.

We develop creative and efficient solutions to operational challenges, so our clients can focus on growth and revenue. Our fees are very competitive and adjusted to the complexity of each matter assigned to us, and we always work to reduce our client's cost.
